MOTION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW PENDING REQUESTS FOR REVIEW BY THE UNITED GOVERNMENT SECURITY OFFICERS OF AMERICA, LOCAL 21

Now comes the United Government Security Officers of America, Local 21 (“UGSOA” “Local 21”, or “Union”) by and through its undersigned counsel and hereby moves the National Labor Relations Board for leave to withdraw its pending Requests for Review in the following cases: Case Nos. 5-RD-1465, (Watkins Security Agency of D.C.); Case No. 5-RD-1466 (U.S. Security Associates, Inc.); Case No. 5-RD-1467 (AlliedBarton Security Services, LLC); Case No. 5-RD-1468 (Business Resource and Security Services, LLC); and Case No. 5-RD-1470 (Securitas Security Services, USA, Inc.)

The basis for this Motion is that on June 29, 2010, the UGSOA disclaimed all interest in representing the employees employed by the aforementioned employers as full and/or regular part time Special Police Officers (armed and unarmed), Security Officers, Lead Officers, Sergeants, Corporals, and Lieutenants working at various District of Columbia leased or owned facilities and/or at the District of Columbia Public Schools. A copy of the letters sent by the UGSOA to the employers disclaiming interest in the representation of the aforementioned employees is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the UGSOA requests that its Motion be granted in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Jonathan D. Newman
